Four Maniacs Escape State Hospital

State And City Police Are Hunting Two Desperate Men

Two of Quartette are Captured During Early Morning Hours

SEARCH IS STILL ON

BULLETIN
Charles Hartwell was picked up by Erie police at 1:48 this afternoon.

Over-powering two of the older attendants in the 9th Ward of the State Hospital last night at 11 o'clock four of the patients locked the attendants in a room after taking their keys. Armed with the keys the four men made their way through the halls and escaped from the institution. The attendants were unharmed although the patients who overpowered them were men with homicidal tendencies according to reports by the police.

The men who escaped were: Stuart Carter, of Tionesta; Harold Russell, of Ridgway; John Bean, of Munson, Pa., and Charles Hartwell, address unknown. All were big men and of a dangerous type.

An alarm was at once sent out and employees of the State Hospital, Borough Police, State Police and Deputy Sheriff Larry C. Lindgren took up the chase while the state police teletype ticked off an alarm to all surrounding towns. Inside of a short time every police department in the state was warned to be on the lookout.

The cruiser car of the police department was put on the prow for the men and at 2:58 this morning Officers Outrid and Muscare picked up Carter on Pennsylvania avenue and he was returned to the State Hospital. Bridges across the river were guarded and at 4:07 this morning Hospital employees stationed at the Glade bridge got John Bean as he approached the bridge to cross it. He, too, was returned to the state hospital.

However Hartwell and Russell have not as yet been captured although the officers have scoured the county. All roads to the east of the city were covered by members of the State Police and local officers and the search was made over the hills toward Scandia, Stony Lonesome and Cobham Park. No clue has as yet been picked up by the officers relative to the missing men.

Anyone sighting persons answering the following descriptions are asked to promptly notify the police or the State Hospital:

Harold Russell, age 31. Height five feet and 10 inches; weight 207 pounds; dark red hair, brown eyes and a small mustache. Committed from Elk county.

VETO THREAT UNHEEDED BY HOUSE G. O. P.

Skip-a-Year Tax Bill Will Be Given All Support By Republicans In Drive

PASSAGE IS EXPECTED

BY FRANCIS M. LE MAY
Washington, May 18.—(P)—Undaunted by the threat of presidential veto, Republicans marshaled all their power today for a final house drive to send the senate-approved skip-a-year income tax bill to the White House.

Backing his party leaders in their battle against the legislation, President Roosevelt informed capitol hill late yesterday that he could not acquiesce "in the elimination of a whole year's tax burden in the upper income groups during the war period."

The verdict is expected today on a Republican motion that the house recede from its own pay-as-you-go bill and accept the senate's full-year abatement measure. Rayburn said he expected the house would vote to send the issue to a conference with the senate in an effort to work out a compromise.

In that event, the fate of pay-as-you-go legislation apparently would rest on three possibilities:

1. A compromise abating 75 percent or more of the $10,000-100,000 income taxes assessed against 1942 income, and encompassing a 20 percent withholding levy against the taxable portions of wages and salaries.

2. Agreement on a simple withholding levy, without any tax abatement, and with the 44,000,000 taxpayers continuing to remit on their preceding year's income, instead of paying currently, as proposed in both senate and house bills.

3. An absolute deadlock.

The house-approved measure, which emerged after a four-month battle over the Ruml plan, would cancel out 75 per cent of 1942 taxes, by abating the 6 per cent normal and 13 percent first bracket surtax on last year's income of all taxpayers. It would erase the 1942 liabilities completely for about 90 per cent of taxpayers and reduce others substantially. It embraces a 20 per cent withholding levy.

Men Deferred Into Industry May Get Call

Washington, May 18.—(P)—Plans to draft several millions of men in classes deferred for physical defects, and others heretofore deemed "necessary" to industry, may operate to delay the induction of fathers.

The War Manpower Commission announced last night that replacement schedules providing for the gradual drafting of some 3,000,000 workers now employed in essential industries had been filed by 5,500 employing firms.

Earlier yesterday Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey told a senate committee that "a good many men" now classed as 4-F because of minor physical defects will be drafted.

Paul V. McNutt, war manpower commissioner, said his earlier estimate.

WOULD PUT LAWYERS INTO WAR PLANTS

Philadelphia, May 18.—(P)—This city's lawyers would spend as much time at the courtrooms kind if municipal court judge Leopold C. Glass had his way. He proposed at an attorney's meeting called by the War Manpower Commission that court's sit in the morning only so that lawyers could spend four hours at war work in the afternoon.

DAVIES ARRIVES IN KUIBYSHEV TODAY

Moscow, May 18.—(P)—Diplomatic sources reported today that Joseph E. Davies, former United States ambassador to Russia, had arrived in Kuibyshev bearing a message from President Roosevelt to Premier Stalin.

Information was not immediately available here, however, as to when Davies would reach Moscow.

Lewis Extends Coal Truce Until End of This Month

Ickes Office Prepares Formula Which He Believes Acceptable

WLB STILL FUNCTIONS

Washington, May 18.—(P)—The soft coal walkout scheduled for midnight has been averted by renewal of the truce until the end of the month.

As the deadline drew near for a work stoppage that threatened to cripple the nation's coal output, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, answered the appeal of fuel co-ordinator Ickes by requesting the miners to continue work under the existing retroactive extension agreement until midnight May 31.

Postponement of the coal crisis for another fortnight brought signs that a strong rivalry has sprung up over who would settle the wage dispute.

Reportedly ready to negotiate between the United Mine Workers and the operators was Interior Secretary Ickes, to whom—in his capacity as fuels administrator and boss of the government-operated mines—UMW President John L. Lewis wired that the two weeks' truce which would have ended at midnight tonight would be extended until May 31.

However, the War Labor Board which yesterday charged Lewis with challenging the sovereignty of the federal government.

Beat Japan First Move On In Senate

BY JOHN H. WIGGINS
Washington, May 18.—(P)—An idea that a senatorial appeal to "beat Japan first" may have been suggested during conferences with United States Military leaders was expressed on capitol hill today in the wake of a three-hour senate row over diverting American military might to the Pacific.

Senator Chandler (D-Ky.), who started the wrangle with warnings that if Germany is beaten first the United States may count on little or no help from Britain or Russia to whip the Nipponese, acknowledged himself that he was "encouraged to make the speech."

The Kentuckian declined to say from what source the encouragement came but he expressed belief that a decision may be forthcoming soon from the Roosevelt-Churchill war conferences pointing to a powerful American offensive against Japan.

The president was disclosed last night to have told Premier Stalin of Russia that it is "reasonable to expect further successes on both the eastern and western fronts," and to have expressed a hope to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek that Allied forces will take the initiative against Japan in Asia "in the near future."

Aerial Bombers Attacked German Targets Again Last Night Following American Thrusts

DAMS RELEASE FLOODS

London, May 18.—(P)—RAF bombers attacked Germany again last night, the Berlin radio announced today, continuing a smashing Allied aerial offensive which reached new heights the preceding night as British raiders breached the Reich's two largest dams and loosed devastating floods in the Ruhr and Weser valleys.

The Berlin broadcast said that south and northwest Germany had been the target of "nuisance raids"—a term which the Germans frequently apply to British aerial operations and which gave no indication of the scope of last night's assault.

It was the RAF's sixth successive night foray over the continent and followed powerful daylight thrusts by American airmen who dumped 500 tons of bombs on three important targets on the French coast.

Meanwhile reconnaissance reports indicated that the daring raid by picked Lancaster crews assigned to attack and breach two of Germany's largest dams Sunday night had attained the goal of "doing as much damage as could be done by thousands of tons of bombs dropped on many nights of running" on the usual objectives.

A mammoth wall of water swept down into the highly industrialized Ruhr valley, site of some of Adolf Hitler's most needed war plants, from the blasted wall of the Mohne dam.

Further to the east, the Eder dam, backing up 202,000,000 tons of water and characterized by the air ministry as the largest dam in all Germany, spilled terrific quantities of water through at least two uncontrollable breaches into the Weser valley, drowning out Nazi war plants and disrupting water-borne traffic.

The Sorpe reservoir, which with the Mohne dam controls about 70 per cent of the Ruhr basin water-fall, also was attacked, but results were not reported.

A late reconnaissance revealed that the Mohne dam was breached over a length of 100 yards, the air ministry said, and that the power stations below had been swept away.

The sweeping floods tore up railways, carried away bridges, and destroyed or damaged hydro-electric power stations, the ministry added.

Enemy raiders, meanwhile, poked at the London area again last night and early today, giving the capital three alerts over approximately the same four-hour period as on the previous night, and fire and smoke were observed in suburban areas.

The 500 tons of bombs dropped yesterday by the American fliers.

Phony Peace Denounced By Naval Head

Boston, May 18.—(P)—Addressing Hitler and Tojo by name, Navy Secretary Frank Knox vowed last night that the Axis leaders and those who gladly became their accessories would be held to a strict accounting for their "bloody crimes."

The secretary at the same time brushed aside "phony peace offensives," declared the outer bastions of the enemy have been broken down and said "the hour in which we shall strike at his main fortifications, both in Europe and Asia, draws near."

"To you, Hitler and Tojo—and to those others who have gladly worked your brutal will—I say that we have kept a record, a long, long record of your crimes in Europe and Asia," Knox told a meeting of the Massachusetts committee of the conference of Christians and Jews, x x x

"I think I speak of the outraged peoples of the world, and in no spirit of vengeance, when I say to you who are guilty that there will be a strict accounting for your bloody crimes against the philosophy of charity and humanity which is the basis of every great religion, x x x

"Phony peace offensives will on—"

Germans To Aid Italy If Attacked

By the Associated Press
The German high command made the wholly unconfirmed claim today that submarines had sunk eight vessels totaling 150,000 tons in the north Atlantic.

Broadcast by the Berlin radio and heard by the Associated Press, the communique said one victim was a 12,000-ton refrigerator ship laden with meat for England. The submarines, said to have been hunting singly rather than in wolf packs, were declared to have shot down three multi-engined bombers.

ATTU FIGHT NEARS END SAYS KNOX

U. S. Troops Capture Ridge Dominating Island and Japs Are Dislodged

NOW MOPPING UP

Washington, May 18.—(P)—American forces have captured a ridge which apparently is the main Japanese defense position on Attu island, Secretary of the Navy Knox announced today.

United States troops advancing north and south across the eastern neck of the island, Knox said, have been brought very close together by this victory if they have not actually joined.

The operation against the ridge apparently climaxes the first phase of the campaign for this island in the Aleutians and Knox reported to a press conference that despite stubborn resistance so far "our casualties are much lighter than had been expected."

The army troops on the island, the secretary added, have the full support of warships standing off to sea and planes operating from American bases to the eastward.

POINT VALUES TO BE UNCHANGED IN MAY

Washington, May 18.—(P)—Present point values of processed foods will remain unchanged throughout May.

In announcing this last night, the Office of Price Administration said the program now has "settled down to an even keel," making mid-month changes—such as were made in March and April—unnecessary.

Memorials Placed In Memory Of Beloved Teacher in Building

Fitting tribute to one who had served it faithfully for a period of 37 years was paid last evening at the former Jefferson street school, when members of the Parent-Teacher Association, representatives of the student body and officials of the Warren school district unveiled two lasting memorials honoring the late A. Bessie Johnson, principal.

The memorial was held at the close of the PTA meeting and was conducted by Superintendent of Schools John G. Rossman. "Not perfect service, perhaps, but human service" was the tribute paid by the school head in acknowledgment of her part in the expressions of gratitude being paid Miss Johnson's memory.

John Swick, representing the PTA, unveiled a beautiful memorial picture and Wendell Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Peterson, voiced the students' acceptance. E. W. Johnson spoke of his sister's love for the building, its teaching staff and changing student body and presented to the school a beautiful black and gold memorial plaque which has been placed in the lower vestibule. Acceptance of this gift was expressed by W. E. Clinger, president of the PTA.

Vessel Marked With Red Cross Complying With All Regulations Governing War

NURSE TELLS STORY

Allied Headquarters in Australia, May 18.—(P)—The Australian hospital ship Centaur, brilliantly lighted and unmistakably marked, was torpedoed and sunk in flames by a Japanese submarine off the coast of Australia last Friday with a loss of 299 lives.

No warning whatever was given. The ship capsized and sank within three minutes.

Sixty-four of the 363 aboard, including only one of 12 women nurses, were saved. Forty-three of the crew of 73 and 245 Australian and British medical staff men went down, most of them trapped on a lower deck of the blazing ship.

There were no Americans aboard. The ship, en route from Sydney to New Guinea, carried no patients.

Survivors, crowded on makeshift rafts in waters swarming with sharks, were picked up 36 hours after the Centaur went down.

General Douglas MacArthur expressed deep revulsion at the "limitless savagery" of the sinking.

"The vessel was traveling unescorted and was fully illuminated and marked with the red cross and complying with all provisions of international law governing hospital ships in time of war," the announcement from his headquarters said. "The weather was clear and visibility was excellent."

The torpedo hit at 4:10 a. m. while the ship was 40 miles off Brisbane and most of those aboard were asleep below decks.

Sister Eleanor Savage of Sydney was the one woman survivor. She said she and her cabinmate were awakened by a terrific explosion. Donning lifejackets over their pajamas, they leaped from the ship floating. The other woman stuck floating wreckage and was killed.

"The sea was covered with oil which fortunately did not catch fire," Sister Savage said. "I am a good swimmer and got to the raft. One of the men gave me his overcoat which I shared with a sixteen-year-old cabin boy."

Frank Davidson, ship's butcher from Sydney, said he saw a great mass of men struggling futilely to force their way up from a lower deck through the debris-blocked hatch.

RIOTING FOLLOWS BURSTING DAMS

London, May 18.—(P)—Rioting broke out in industrial Duisburg, flooded by waters of the burst Mohne dam, the Morocco radio said today.

The report, heard by Reuters, quoted "well-informed inside sources" and was not confirmed from any other source.

Nazis Claim Eight Sinkings

London, May 18.—(P)—Germany officially recognized the gravity of Italy's position today with assurances to her invasion-conscious junior partner that she would not be deserted and left to fight alone.

The campaign of reassurance, obviously intended to bolster weakened Italian morale, was disclosed in dispatches from Bern which quoted Deutsche Diplomatische Korrespondenz, German foreign organ, as saying the European southern front would be defended jointly. It came as an answer to speculation in the London press that Italy, her usefulness to Hitler exhausted, was about to be deserted and left to her fate.

Many Hear Speech Expert Give Address

At the Warren State Hospital Monday afternoon, thirty physicians, twelve dentists, health nurses and teachers were addressed by Dr. Herbert Koepf-Baker, director of the speech clinics at Pennsylvania State College.

His topic for discussion dealt with deformities of the mouth which produce serious speech defects. He explained that numerous operations have been devised to correct these interferences in structure which take place in the new-born and showed lantern slides describing such operations.

Cleft palate and hairlip, he said, are failures in the union of bone and soft tissues and the speech defect which results affects the behavior of such individuals, as speech is the one attribute which distinguishes man from the lower animals.

The speaker told, also, that in recent years numerous appliances have been devised, dentures of different types, which greatly aid in the ability to speak plainly and also assist in correcting the deformity. It was pointed out that muscles must also be exercised and educated so that the speech may be made more intelligible.

The session was very interesting and proved a most helpful one.

Would you like to do something more to help win the war?

It's just a little thing. Costs you nothing. Might even save you some money.

Here's what we mean:

Long Distance lines to busy war centers are overloaded with calls. Too many calls or long-drawn-out calls slow down the service and cause serious delays on important messages.

You can help speed all calls if you will bear these points in mind:

- 1—KEEP ALL CALLS BRIEF!
- 2—PLACE LONG DISTANCE CALLS BY NUMBER, when possible.
- 3—MAKE THEM STATION-TO-STATION, IF YOU CAN.
- 4—MAKE ONLY URGENT CALLS to any centers of war activity—especially:

YOUNGSVILLE NEWS

Youngsville, May 18—The high school gymnasium was very attractively decorated Friday evening when the Music Festival of all the musical groups of the senior and junior high school was presented to a large audience.

In the rear of the gymnasium a tall May pole had been erected and from the pole came interlaced streamers of pastel shades of ribbon forming a canopy under which the concert was given. The portion of the floor on which was massed bands, orchestra and choir was separated from the rest of the gymnasium with an ornamental picket fence covered with flowers and pastel colored ribbons.

The program opened with numbers by the second band part of the time directed by Vernon Jones. The Junior Chorus, youthful violin trio; the choir with Billy Goodwell, baritone soloist, followed.

A violin quartette and orchestra numbers followed by solos by Geo. Walter, clarinetist, and Donald Haupin, sousaphone. The closing numbers were given by the Eagle Band.

Byron Swanson, director, and Miss Charlotte Erickson, who directed violin work deserve much credit as do the accompanists.

Those attending pronounced this one of the best of the numerous musical programs given by the school.

Mrs. Warren Jones was the hostess Thursday evening at the meeting of the Dorcas Class which was opened by the president with devotionals. A pledge was made by the class for the fund being raised to liquidate the debt on the Ruth Smith's Children's Home.

Mrs. C. H. Foss, former missionary in Malaya was the speaker of the evening telling informally of her missionary experience during war conditions in the Orient.

A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Frank Johnson.

Paul Dundon, of Edinboro was in town Wednesday, in connection with his duties on enforcing the dog regulations. Some violators of the dog laws were given sentences in a local Justice Court.

The Brokenstraw Garden Club is meeting at the home of C. C. Johnson, West Main street Tuesday evening May 18, with Mrs. Ruth Sour and Mrs. H. H. Husted hostesses. All members and friends are urged to be present.

The Parent Teacher Association will meet in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon May 18th at which time the annual installation of officers for the coming school year will take place and there will be program features.

Youngsville friends will be interested in the recent marriage of Gertrude Sutton, who while attending high school here lived with Mrs. A. M. School. Miss Sutton was married at Turkey City to David S. Shirley.

Mrs. Floyd Burrows who suffered a fractured ankle is now home from the Warren hospital and able to get about the home on crutches.

Those who enjoyed Wednesday the Grange chicken dinner reported a fine dinner and a large crowd.

A tank has 8,000 parts.

Joe Chronister

JOE ought to know!

"I've read AP news all the way from Kansas to New Zealand and I've had a chance to know that Associated Press reports were accurate."

"The American public is being told the truth."

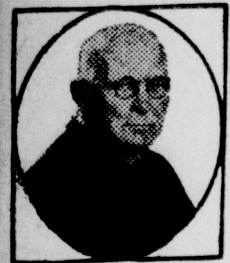

"There are, of course, certain things that must be omitted at the time to prevent giving information to the enemy, but I believe what we are told is reliable and we can depend on it."

This statement, reported in the Lyons, Kansas, News, is from Joe Chronister, a radioman on the U. S. Destroyer De Haven sunk off Guadalcanal.

Joe is typical of the millions who believe day in, day out, in AP news—the Chicago mother who was satisfied her son was safe in New Guinea only "because The AP said so," the United States senator who states authoritatively, "I see by The Associated Press..." the readers everywhere who have learned "AP" stands for truth wherever newspapers are printed.

ON SECURING HOUSEMAIDS

Here's an editorial written by Ruth Millett, author of "We, the Women," that contains a number of suggestions of value to readers who may be having difficulty in securing and keeping housemaids:

"Can wear my mink coat for day off."

That line in a classified Help Wanted ad brought a New Jersey housewife looking for a maid 600 telephone calls before she was forced to take the receiver off the hook to get a little peace.

The woman without a mink coat—or the inclination to share her wearing apparel with a maid—might think there's no lesson for her in that incident.

But there is if she wants a maid. The woman who advertised "Can wear my mink coat for day off" recognized a fact that many women overlook. And that is that maids aren't so different from the women they work for. They're just women.

An employer who keeps that in mind has less trouble than her sisters in getting and keeping help.

She might not get 600 calls, but she would get some if she included in her Want Ads for a maid any of the following assurances:

"Housekeeper can do work in own way. Am not one constantly to supervise and criticize."

"Realize private life your own affair. Will not pry into it or attempt to regulate it."

"Will respect housekeeper's time off."

"Will see that meal save always on schedule."

"Regular hours; no overtime."

"Nice, comfortable room which will be absolutely your own. Will not snoop around to find out how you keep it."

"Your work will remain the same as when hired. Will not increase it without also increasing wages."

"Will really appreciate your making family's life easier and more pleasant, and will try to show it by making your life as secure and pleasant as possible."

"No rules like not permitting telephone calls or guests during off hours."

Those promises might not lure as many applicants for the job of housekeeper as "Can wear my mink coat for day off"—but they are bound to interest some women. For they show that a woman knows a maid is just another woman, with a woman's ideas of what is important.

TRIBUTE TO AIR-MAIL FLYER

An article that will be of interest to readers generally appeared in last week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post under the heading of "Flying Guerrillas." Tribute is paid to the late Holger Hoiris, who flew the mail pick-up through Warren during that first trying year when they were endeavoring to run 100% schedule and nearly did it, despite the weather. At that time they flew over the hill at Kane and down to Harrisburg. He had many friends in town who will remember him as the fellow who flew the "iron beam" in soupy weather. On days when the visibility and ceiling were nil he would follow the railroad tracks just above the telephone poles and leave them only long enough to pick up the mail. He outlived many a close call, only to fall victim to a kidney ailment. He held the rank of major in the Civil Air Patrol.

RETROACTIVE, WE HOPE

We tremble to think what might have happened if Manpower Commissioner McNutt had not remembered, belatedly, to give congressmen a blanket exemption from the 48-hour week ruling.

Undoubtedly Mr. McNutt made the exemption retroactive so that the United States of America will not be haled into court for violation of the minimum work week regulation in a critical shortage area. That would be the last straw.

In these days of shortages Warren playgoers are fortunate in having the Players Club presenting periodically one of their well-staged performances. The spring production this year is "Watch On the Rhine" and, according to all reports, promises to be one of the best yet. It is being offered Thursday and Friday evenings at the Woman's Club.

Something out of the ordinary in the way of patriotic endeavor is taking place Thursday afternoon at the American Legion Home when the Auxiliary extends a hand of fellowship and comfort to wives, mothers and sisters of ex-service men and women by giving a "Dedication Day" tea.

"Get Off My Stepping Stones, Mister!"

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—The Republican Post-War Policy Association meeting in Chicago was pretty well smothered in the news by war and labor headlines, but practical politicians here didn't miss its significance.

This newcomer in the ranks of political groups has for its open purpose the purging of G.O.P. ranks of isolationist elements. Most important business of the meeting was unanimous endorsement of the Burton-Ball-Hatch-Hill resolution (now before the U. S. Senate) committing the U. S. to an international course in the postwar world.

Sen. Harold Burton (R-Ohio) told the group that the resolution he co-sponsored is gaining ground daily in the Senate.

Typical delegates were Roy Dunn, Minnesota national committeeman, Royene Hornbeck, junior state committeewoman from Michigan, W. M. Smart, clerk of the North Dakota House of Delegates, and Lawrence Hall, speaker of the Minnesota House. The posts they hold show they wield considerable personal power within organizations potent enough to win respectable victories in the 1942 elections against formidable Democratic opposition.

THE plans they made public also made the practical politicians take notice. They announced a follow-up program of house-keeping, grange-hall-to-resolutions. That indicates a political "savvy" that takes them out of the babes-in-the-wood class.

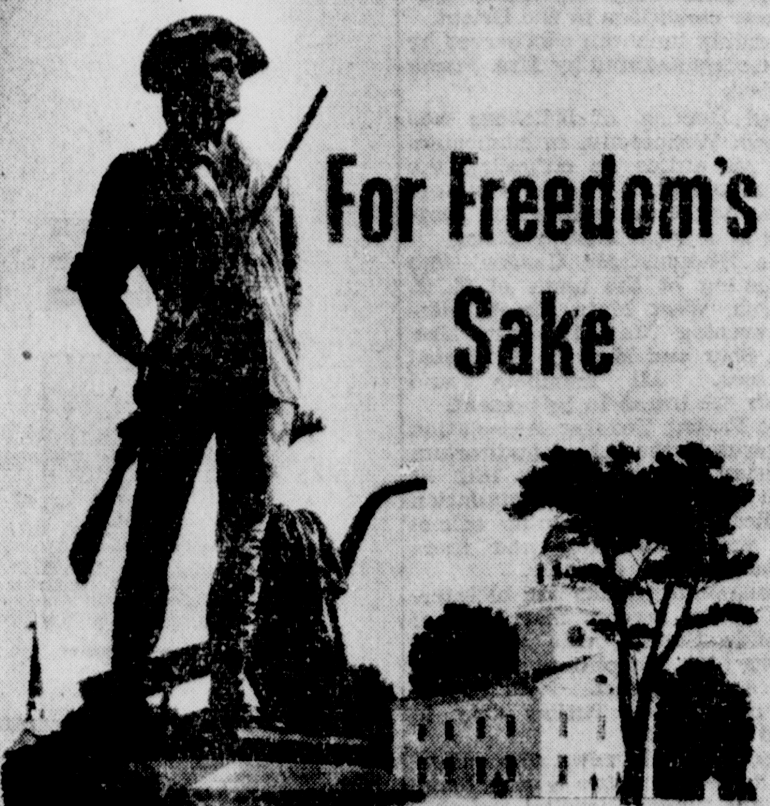

There is no claim made at this time that the would-be purgers control their state organizations, or could deliver a united bloc of votes at a party convention. What is significant, to Washington observers, is that this movement attracted "solid" party men in the mid-west, generally accounted the fountainhead of ultra-nationalism. The basic thesis of the association, expounded by Chairman Deane Watson, is that the G.O.P. isolationists are a millstone around the party's neck. He holds that millions of thoughtful voters who dislike Democratic domestic policies still remain in Democratic ranks because they can't stomach the ostrich policies of G.O.P. leaders caught napping by Pearl Harbor.

The 12 north central states represented at the Chicago meeting constitute 153 in 531 electoral college votes, 29-plus per cent. The same proportions hold in the nominating conventions. If the Republican young blood represents a basic trend in the area, political analysts here say it could have an important effect on the '44 elections.

THE Republican leaders in the northeast Atlantic coast states have been generally internationalist. Such leaders as Sen. Warren Austin of Vermont and Rep. James Wadsworth of New York have been in the van of administration supporters on international issues. They are held to reflect popular will in the northeast. No competent observer is willing to predict success for the Chicago group yet. They carefully avoided intra-party personal feuds, in failing to endorse Wendell Wilkie, the party's leading internationalist. Their program and the manner they kept out of personality pitfalls impressed observers here, however, so much that they are unwilling to write the group off as idealists destined to the unsung end of tilers at windmills.

BUY WAR BONDS

The most recent poster to be released by the Treasury Department is the work of John Atherton, noted painter and illustrator whose earlier "Buy a Share in America" was a prize winner in the New York Museum of Modern Art's poster competition. His latest poster, shown above, depicts Daniel Chester French's famous statue of the Minute Man of Concord and Lexington. Few artists can claim Atherton's distinction in both commercial illustrating and surrealistic painting.

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

In 1923

Motorists driving west of Youngville were treated to a queer sight last night. An old hollow tree had caught ablaze inside in some manner and the fire and smoke streamed out like from a blast furnace.

An explosion of gas at the Children's Home badly damaged the home, caused one death and perhaps the fatal burning of two other persons. It has resulted in a discussion of a new building in which to house the home.

Word has been received here that "Art" Smith, well known Warren boy, has been elected as president of his fraternity in the engineering department at Pitt.

Plans for Memorial Day are being prepared by the G. A. R. Although there are few members left of the once large body the observance will be a good one. D. I. Ball will preside and Col. David Gardner will be Marshall of the Day.

Men were sent to Stoneham today to combat a fire which threatened to set ablaze the oil lease on the Riddlesperger farm.

In 1933

Gen. Edward Martin spent a short time in the city today on his way to Endeavor where he will be the guest of Assemblyman Wheeler. Tomorrow he will address service men at Corry.

Next week at the Y. M. C. A. another of the classes in swimming which are held annually will open. These classes have taught hundreds of boys about the town to swim.

Farmers are complaining loudly of the great amount of rain that has fallen. They say the ground is too wet to work and that if the rain does not soon cease there will be poor crops this year.

Irvine schools have closed for the year and four pupils have completed the school work and will be ready for High School next year. They are Edwin Poppleton, Tony Spear, Katherine Abplanalp and Lucille Miller.

The second report in the Y. W. C. A. budget drive shows that $1480.40 has been raised by the teams.

EVERY DRIVER CAN HELP

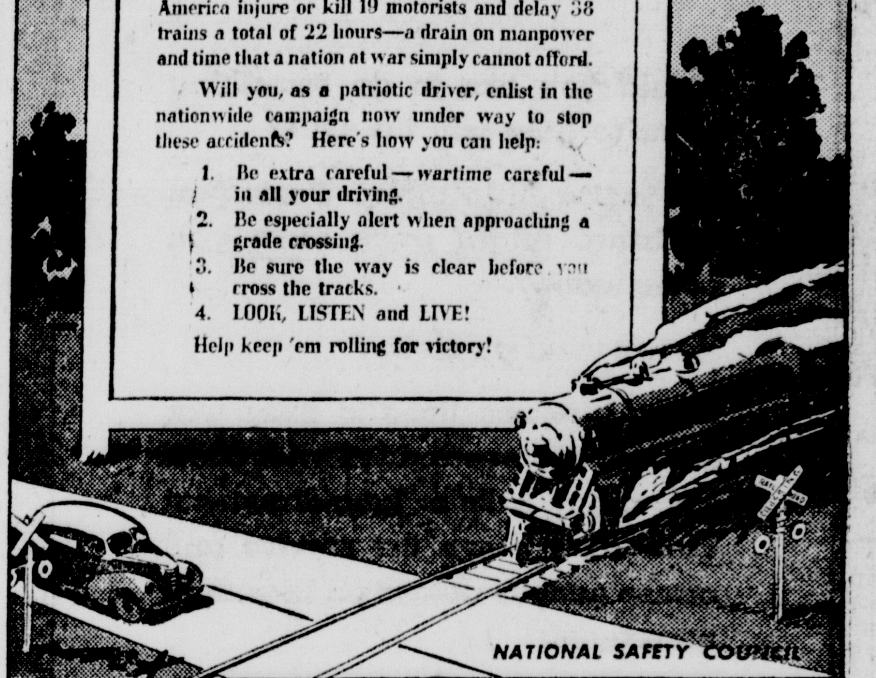

KEEP 'EM ROLLING

WAR, 1943 style, is war on wheels. Men, weapons and materials vital to victory must be moved swiftly, safely and without delay. But each day accidents at grade crossings in America injure or kill 19 motorists and delay 38 trains a total of 22 hours—a drain on manpower and time that a nation at war simply cannot afford.

Will you, as a patriotic driver, enlist in the nationwide campaign now under way to stop these accidents? Here's how you can help:

1. Be extra careful—wartime careful—in all your driving.
2. Be especially alert when approaching a grade crossing.
3. Be sure the way is clear before you cross the tracks.
4. 100%, LISTEN and LIVE!

Help keep 'em rolling for victory!

Keglers Start Singles In The Merchants Tourney at Center; Still Chance To Roll Doubles

The merchants tournament at the Penn Center still saw Hoag, Hall and Thomas holding onto their lead last night when the closest score was nearly 100 pins off from theirs, but due to the number of bowlers asking to keg in the doubles, the contest isn't closed yet and they haven't won yet.

Several callers who didn't get the opportunity to get there for the doubles will be allowed to take part in it during the singles which starts immediately.

Bowersox and N. Anderson clipped high for last night with 1565 and the Clepper brothers, Harold and Harry, crossed the tape at 1552.

It is expected the singles will break all records for such an event.

because so many bowlers wishing to participate in the other event had difficulty obtaining a partner or didn't have the time.

Call Penn Center Alleys, or sign up at the local establishment for singles bowling NOW! Take home one of the more than $100 worth of prizes being donated by the merchants of Warren.

No Superiority Shown by Cards Or Dodgers in Game Yesterday But Bums Win 1 to 0

By JUDSON BAILEY

A microscope still is standard equipment for National League fans trying to find any difference in strength between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

These two rivals for the pennant in the senior circuit collided at Ebbets Field yesterday for the first time this season and the Dodgers won by the least possible margin 1 to 0.

This was good enough to chase the Cardinals into third place and make it impossible for them to gain the league lead during their stay in Brooklyn, but it failed to indicate any clear cut superiority for the long grind ahead.

The twilight tussle, opening a four-game series, was decided on a run in the second inning, Dixie Walker led off with a double, the only extra base blow of the game. He advanced to third on an infield out and Alex Kampouris walked. Then pitcher Rube Melton rapped a perfect double play grounder to third baseman Jimmy Brown, but Kampouris banded into Lou Klein at second hard enough to break up the throw to first and Walker scored.

The Cardinals completed three other double plays, though, with Brown starting all of them, to make the hurling of Lefty Hovey Pollet almost match the five-hit performance of Melton. The Redbirds' dazzling defense pulled out of a hole with the abases loaded in the first, again with the sacks filled and none out in the third and smothered another threat in the sixth.

It was the first victory for Melton and the first defeat for Pollet, who allowed seven hits and four walks.

Only two other games, both in the National League, were played yesterday. The Cincinnati Reds squeezed back into the first division by beating the New York Giants 3-1. Ray Starr gave an effective eight-hit pitching performance for the Reds and also singled with the bases loaded for two of their counters in a three-run second inning that decided the game.

At Philadelphia the surprising Phillies conquered the last place Chicago Cubs 8-4 to extend the Bruins' losing streak to six games. John Podagney, long a Cub numismatist, held them well in check after a wobbly first inning. His bad start was offset by the Phillies' scoring five runs in the first frame. Danny Litwhiler collected his fourth homer of the spring in the second.

Times-Mirror Sunset League To Hold Baseball Meeting On Friday To Decide On Teams

By BOB JOHNSON

The potential Sunset League for 1943 will probably receive its final "go" signal Friday night at 8:00, or be put on ice for the duration, with a meeting in the offing to decide one way or the other.

Weather, causing an extreme loss of interest has nearly given the game a stab in the back, but some of the still-hopefuls have raised enough of the stuff needed to put three teams on a near-definite basis and tapped off a dot-dash of victory.

These three are the National Forge, Stathers-Wells, and the State Hospital and one other looming as a big possibility to give the home-bound fans of this war year a chance to see some good brand of ball played.

One sport that hasn't suffered so much from the war except in loss of player material, is the diamond game, and since the discarding of the balata ball, every one seems to think a four team league would go over like a fireside chat, and the prexies of the league are trying to get inclined to agreeing with them.

However, in this momentary mood of the weather man to throw a little sunshine our way, we may be jumping at conclusions in thinking winter is over enough to let baseball in, but anyway we're going to have a meeting Friday at 8.

A Doctor Friend tipped us off to this one

He came in one day and noticed the tires lined up for recapping.

"Looks like my waiting room," he said, "only those are tires."

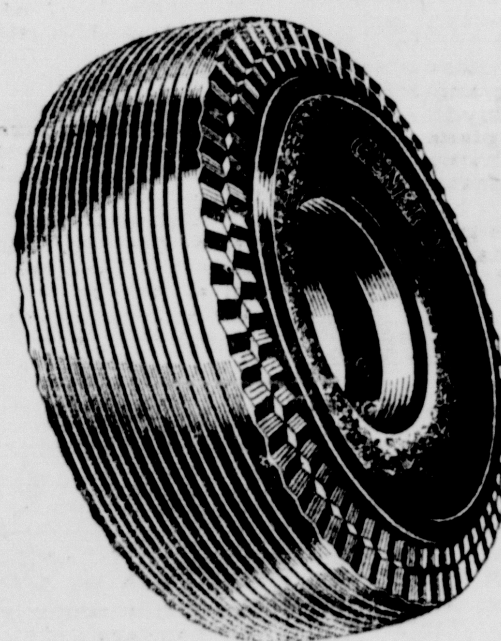

We couldn't help but come back and say, "Well, after all, doc, we're tire doctors, too. We've spent our whole business life keeping tires well and replacing those that pass on. Incidentally, that's something you can't do, doc!"

"Okeh," he said, "but since you're tire doctors, why don't you follow my system and make appointments for recaps?"

So that's why we have that appointment coupon at the bottom of this ad. When your tires need recapping you won't have to waste valuable time waiting to be served or use extra gas making trips to our store if you will send in this coupon. We'll be able to schedule the work and give you overnight recap service. (No recapping certificate is necessary now.)

All our recapping is done right in our own shop, on our own modern equipment, by skilled mechanics.

Yes, sir, when we recap your tires you are assured of dependable extra mileage.

Six Strategic Islands in the Mediterranean

Victory Garden Peas Will Excel in Sweetness

Peas Should Be Harvested as Soon as Pods Become Plump

Peas are high in sugar content which rapidly turns to starch, losing sweetness, when they are picked; so that only home gardeners who may serve them an hour or so after harvesting can enjoy their full delicious flavor.

They give a relatively small yield for the space they occupy, but give it quickly, and may be pulled up to make room for other crops. Though hardy, and withstanding light frosts, the seeds of the wrinkled varieties, which are sweetest, will rot in cold wet soil; so they should not be sown until a week or two after the first crops are put in, when the season has become more settled.

Sow peas two inches deep and not closer than two inches apart in a single row; double rows, six inches apart, with bush or low climbing varieties, are better for the vines to climb, are sometimes used. This arrangement requires weeding by hand between the rows. Even dwarf varieties appreciate something to climb, and the semi-tall and tall growing peas require support.

The pea harvest is cut short by arrival of hot summer weather; so early sowing is vital. To get two crops, an early dwarf and a secondarily semi-tall variety may be sown at the same time. Tall peas give the heaviest yield, but they also take longest to mature, and in states where spring comes late and hot weather is close behind, the tall varieties will not mature in time to escape the heat. Where the spring is early, they may be sown at the same time as dwarf and semi-tall varieties to complete the succession of yield.

Peas have a short harvest, and should be eaten or canned as soon as the pods are plump before the seeds within have begun to mature.

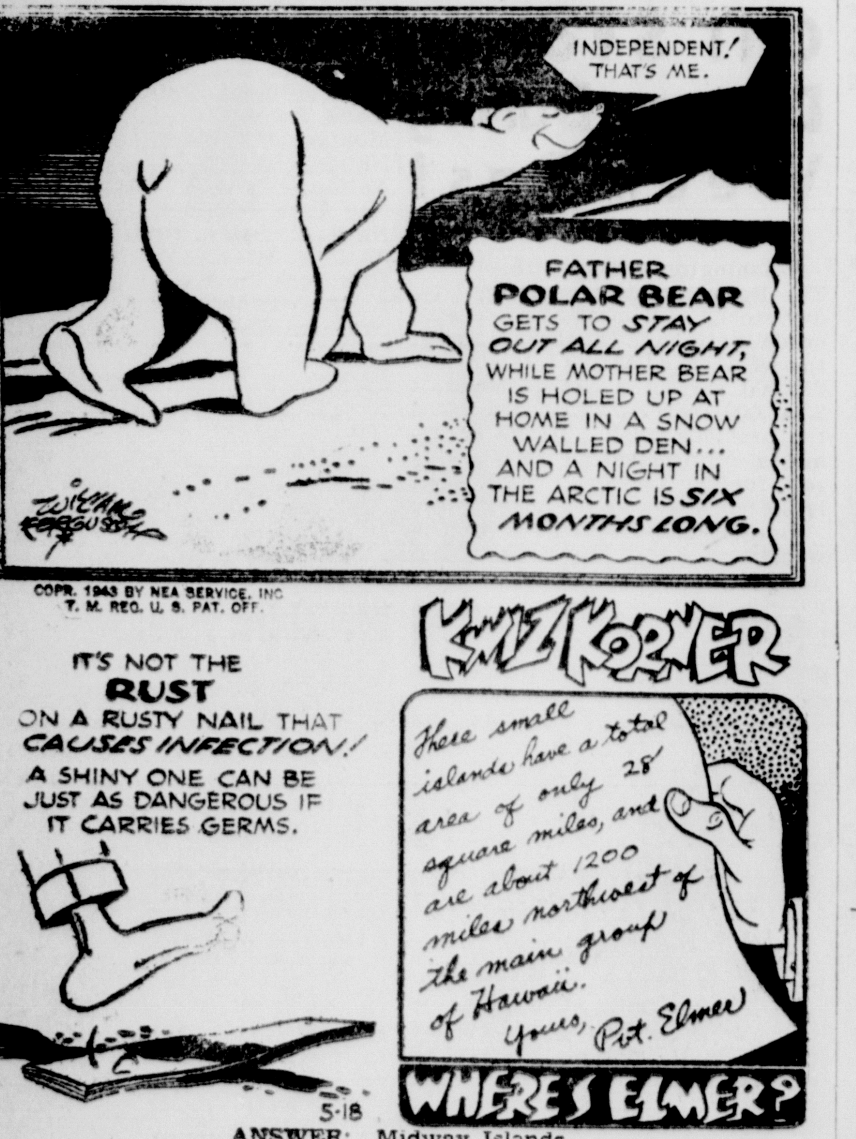

In new gardens it will pay to inoculate the seed with a culture which seedsmen supply for the purpose, containing nitrogen-fixing bacteria. The soil should be well fertilized with a balanced plant food, at the rate of a pint for a twenty-five foot row, raked into the top soil before planting.

Hollywood Gossip

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Eleven years ago when Irving Rapper was directing "The Animal Kingdom" for the stage, he had a letter from a gentleman who offered his services as a perfect gorilla man.

Later, when Hollywood made Phillip Barry's play into a movie, with Leslie Howard, Ann Harding, Myrna Loy and William Gar- gan, there was the same confusion, some exhibitors even advertising that the film was "not an animal picture."

Today, Irving Rapper again is making "The Animal Kingdom" for the camera. As before, he had a letter from a "gorilla man" in search of a job. But there is no immediate prospect for a change of title. In a town where no name or title is safe from alterations, this obviously misleading one will stand — on the theory that a change would be unfair to Barry's play, a comedy-drama without a zoo sequence anywhere.

Rapper says we're going to be surprised at how easily Ann Sheridan is fitting into a former Ann Harding role, and Dennis Morgan into a Leslie Howard one.

MARGARET LANDRY from Baton Rouge, La., my old home town, was an inveterate beauty contest winner as well as a prize drama student at L. S. U. Her titles included "Miss Southern Belle," "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," "Darling of L. S. U." and "National Sweetener Girl." She is proud of the titles, but somewhat disillusioned about their potency in winning film opportunity. She was here six months before she crashed a contract—not on her trophies, but because an RKO scout happened to catch her in an amateur play staged at her boarding-house. She has had bits in several films, and a featured role in "The Leopard Man."

"Those trophies?"

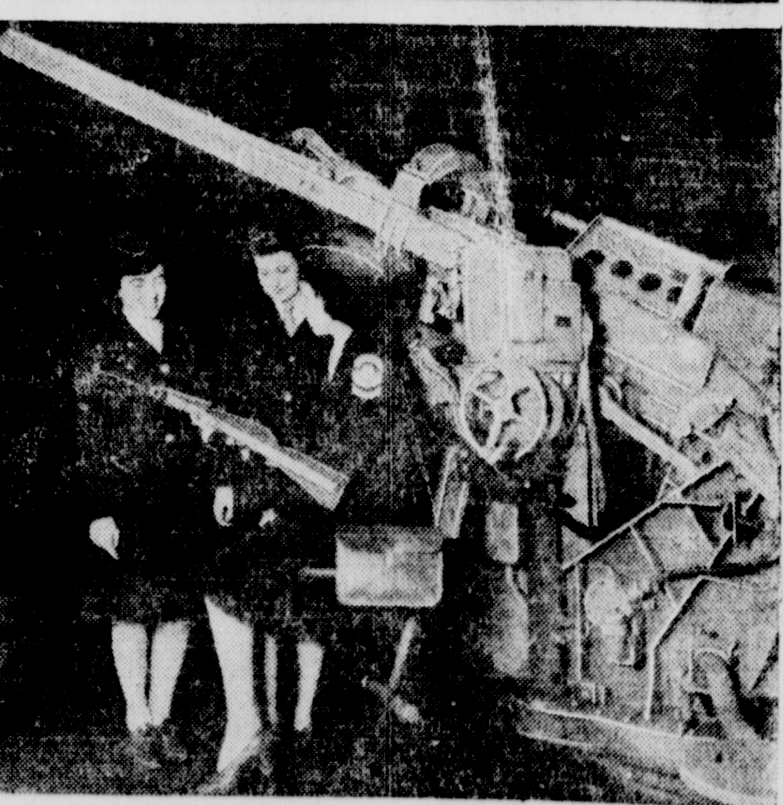

"When you told a casting director or talent scout about them, he just arched an eyebrow as if to say 'Another one of those.' You had two strikes against you."

She dropped her southern accent, on advice of an agent. One of her calls after that was for a "real southern girl"—and she missed out because she didn't have enough drawl left. . . .

BACK in 1930 a Vienna-born star of European stage and screen offered himself to Hollywood with no takers. He went east to the stage, and got Hollywood excited—until he had finished his run-of-the-play contract. Then Hollywood wasn't excited any more.

In 1938 he played in "I Married an Angel," and movie deals blew hot again. But the years passed, one, two, three. . . . Once he was called for a test—but it was a case of mistaken identity. Four years, five years. . . . Came a call from Leo McCarey, as casual as if he had mentioned the movies only yesterday. But he now had that movie role—and so Walter Slezak, 13 hours later, was in "Once Upon a Honeymoon." In quick succession he has been in "This Land Is Mine" and "The Fallen Sparrow"—in quite a lot of hurry after 13 years of waiting for Hollywood to make up its mind. . . .

(Left to right) Ruth Lorton, Marguerite Kasischke and Ann McMillan, of the Detroit Tank Automotive Center, examine a .30-caliber carbine and a 90-mm. anti-aircraft gun at the GM Arms for Victory exhibit in Detroit. General Motors today is the nation's biggest producer of firepower, in one recent month having turned out 118,000 "shooting irons" ranging in size from carbines to cannon. Twenty-three G. M. divisions in the United States and Canada are now in production on fifteen different types of weapons and assorted gun parts for the fighting forces of the United Nations.

Women Halt Deportations From France

London, May 18—(P)—Laying their bodies across the tracks in front of locomotives, the wives and daughters of Frenchmen drafted for German labor have almost halted the deportations to the Reich, Fernan Grenier, former Communist deputy who has joined the fighting French, declared today.

"The latest Vichy reports admit that between 50 and 80 per cent of the workers conscripted for German factories failed to go," he said.

Grenier gave a full account of activities of French guerrillas in the last three months and produced a sheaf of underground newspapers printed in France to document his remarks.

He said the recently organized council of French resistance, embracing underground organizations, had disseminated an "invasion day" plan to be set in operation the moment the Allies strike.

The council of resistance represents, he said, "no less than 90 per cent" of all able-bodied men and women in France.

Scout Health Director Will Visit Warren

An Institute to aid in the enrichment of the Emergency Service Training Program of the Boy Scouts of Warren County will be held Friday evening, May 21st, it was learned today from Dr. J. E. Richards, chairman of the Health and Safety Committee of the local Boy Scout Council. This will be an inspirational and instructive meeting for the Scoutmasters and troop committeemen of the county, who will take the information back into the development of the program for their own troops, Dr. Richards explained.

The "Institute" will be held in Room 201 of the Warren National Bank Building, beginning promptly at 8 p. m. this Friday evening. The program is planned to be of two hours duration.

The feature of the meeting will be the opportunity of the local Scout leaders to hear the presentation of William E. Lawrence, Assistant National Director of the Health and Safety Service of the Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Lawrence has been in various parts of Pennsylvania during the last two weeks and will bring the most recent and up-to-date emergency service information and program material to the local leaders.

Scouters Had Weekend Of Much Value

Twenty six Scouters participated in the Scoutmasters Training Course held over the week-end at Camp Jemore, it was learned this morning from J. E. Springer, Course leader and chairman of the Leadership Training Committee of the Warren County Council, Boy Scouts of America. The men assembled at camp at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, the program being an intensive one carried through the afternoon and evening, coming to a conclusion at 12 noon Sunday in time for the men to pack up and get home for Sunday dinner.

The worship service was held early Sunday morning under the leadership of Robert R. Young, who spoke of "Building a Friendlier World". In closing he inspired his hearers to an appreciation of the part Troop Leaders can play in the world-wide brotherhood of Scouting in building a "Friendlier World" through the proper training of boys.

In the closing ceremonies of the course, H. L. Banghart, president of the Warren County Council, presented certificates to the men who had completed the course. These were presented to: Ronald Rieder, Scoutmaster Troop 48; Ralph Ward, Jr. Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 13; Melbourne Karlson, Scoutmaster Troop 43; Dr. William Ball, Scoutmaster Troop 1; V. R.
